3 FEDERAL INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING

If you are requesting a distribution from a Traditional IRA (i.e. non-Roth IRA), you acknowledge that your Traditional IRA (other than that portion of your distribution that consists of non-deductible contributions) will be subject to income tax and, if you are under age 59½, a 10% penalty tax for premature distribution, unless an exception applies. Your distribution will not be subject to taxes and penalties if you timely roll over your distribution to another Traditional IRA (i.e. non-Roth) or if permitted, a qualified retirement plan.

If you are requesting a distribution from a Roth IRA, you acknowledge that: (i) your Roth IRA distribution will not be includible in income only to the extent that it is a "qualified distribution" (please see The Dreyfus IRA Plan and Disclosure), and (ii) if your Roth IRA distribution is not a "qualified distribution," the portion of the distribution consisting of earnings (note: non-qualified distributions are deemed to come first from contributions and then from earnings) will be subject to income tax and, if you are under age 59½, a 10% penalty tax for premature distribution, unless an exception applies. A Roth IRA distribution that is otherwise subject to tax will not be subject to taxes and penalties if you timely roll over your distribution to another Roth IRA.

The Bank of New York Mellon is required to withhold 10% of your distribution for Federal Income Tax purposes unless you elect otherwise below. If you elect not to have withholding apply to your distribution, or if you do not have enough Federal income tax withheld from your distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. If you do not elect out of withholding, by checking the box below, withholding will be based on the gross amount of your distribution even though a portion of your distribution may not be subject to tax (e.g. if you have made non-deductible contributions to your Traditional IRA, your Roth IRA distribution is a "qualified distribution," or your Roth IRA is a non-qualified distribution all or a portion of which consists of contributions you have made to your Roth IRA).

I do want income tax withholding applied to my IRA distribution.

I do not want income tax withholding applied to my IRA distribution.

(Several states require state income tax withholding. If your IRA is located in one of these states, the custodian will withhold applicable state taxes. To the extent permitted by state law, an election to not have income tax withheld will also apply to state income taxes.)
