⁶Data reflects days until final maturity for individual portfolio securities.

⁷Maturity distribution reflects the final maturity date except for floating rate securities for which the next reset date is reflected.

⁸WAM is a measure of the average effective maturity of all of the underlying money market instruments in the fund, weighted to reflect the relative percentage ownership of each instrument. WAM calculations allow for the maturities of certain securities with periodic interest rate resets to be shortened. Generally, for money market funds, WAM can be used primarily as a measure of relative sensitivity to interest rate changes.

⁹WAL is a measure of the average final maturity of all of the underlying money market instruments in the fund, weighted to reflect the relative percentage ownership of each instrument. Unlike WAM, WAL calculations do not allow maturities to be shortened for periodic interest rate resets. Accordingly, WAL will generally be higher than WAM.

¹⁰Monthly yield history is the annualized distribution rate that is based upon dividends per share from net investment income paid during the period, divided by the period ended maximum offering price per share, adjusted for capital gains (IF ANY) distributed during the period, and annualized based upon the number of days in the distribution period.

ESG evaluation risk. Where appropriate and as applicable, Dreyfus incorporates environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors into its fundamental credit research process. Dreyfus may not consider ESG ratings or other ESG data or analysis in connection with every investment decision and may determine that other attributes of an investment outweigh ESG considerations when making an investment decision. ESG factors may not be determinative with respect to a given credit analysis or investment decision. Accordingly, a fund may invest in securities of a company/issuer with a negative ESG profile, and a fund may divest or not invest in a company/issuer with a positive ESG profile. In light of the fact that ESG data often lacks standardization, consistency and transparency, such data including ESG ratings for certain issuers/companies may not be available, complete or accurate. As a result, the fund's investments may differ from, and potentially underperform funds that incorporate ESG data from other sources or utilize other methodologies.
