Customer Identification Program Notice
Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account
USA PATRIOT Act, Bank Secrecy Act, and Anti-Money Laundering

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each individual or entity that opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for information that will allow us to identify you. Until you provide the information or documents requested, we may not be able to open an account or effect any additional transactions for you.

Escheatment Notice: Your property may be transferred to the appropriate state if no activity occurs in your Fund accounts within the time period specified by state law.
